Alan Keyes is a champion of life and family. He consistently raises the defense of the unborn within the public moral framework of America and its Constitution.

Dr. Keyes served in notable government positions including as Assistant Secretary of State under President Reagan. He has published two books and hosts a syndicated radio show on moral conscience and the Constitution in America.

Come hear Ambassador Keyes speak about prolife at the Morning Star Ministries Fellowship Night. There is no cost for attendance, but a free will offering will be accepted to support the Morning Star Ministries Maternity Home.
